School Council members spent time this week reflecting on the lovely gifts our school has received recently from our Fundraisers and B&Q. B&Q have donated lots of herbs, seeds, gardening equipment and plants, while Fundraisers have spent money on buying new outdoor activities such as a giant Connect 4, Colouring Book fun trolley, garden benches and lots of other lovely items to keep us busy at break and lunch times. We are very grateful to them and the following school council leaders went the extra mile to write lovely letters to them: Jacob B, Ellie B, Erin S and Luis T.

Its Bank Holiday weekend, just a reminder that we will not be in school on Monday. Have an enjoyable weekend!

We are in the very early stages of beginning to think about the new classes for the next academic year. If you have any thoughts or concerns around this issue, please speak to Mrs Twidale or Mrs Evans. Thank you.

Book Fest Awards

Last Friday, over 1,000 pupils came together at the Awards Ceremony at the Theatre Severn, including our Year 5 Book Fest pupils. We gathered to celebrate the end of a remarkable reading for pleasure project. Theatre Severn was packed with hundreds of pupils and their teachers who excitedly awaited the news of the overall winning book. Our children were delighted to be in the company of the authors: Jane Elson, Holly Webb, Mike Revell, Tom McLaughlin and Emma Carroll.

Sadly, Michael Morpurgo couldn't be there but he did send a video link to the children.

We had a great time and even Hannah and Lily had their questions to the authors answered personally on stage for all to hear. Not only that, Keira and Corey won an art runner up prize. Their winning art work is on display at the Shrewsbury Museum during the month of May for all visitors or passers by to look at.

The winning book was How to Fly with Broken Wings by Jane Elson. She gave a wonderful speech and explained her reasoning for writing this lovely story.

We are so proud of all our brilliant Book Fest pupils for their dedication to this reading project and at this point would like to thank parents who have also supported them with their reading. Well Done!

Please find below comments from our Book Fest pupils about their special day.

Jane Elson, the winning author

I enjoyed everything about bookfest. The best part was meeting the authors, hearing them read their own book and I recommend the books to everyone.
Noah P

I really enjoyed bookfest, it was a lot of fun reading the books. The show was really cool. I enjoyed the end getting all the signatures.
Liam W

I enjoyed bookfest because it was nice to be picked for this award. I loved going to Theatre Severn and reading all the books and my favourite book was In Darkling Wood because it was a really good book. My favourite part was going to Theatre Severn because it was a fun experience.
Kaitlin B

I enjoyed it because I really liked hearing the authors answering questions and my favourite part was when I got picked for my art. My favourite book is In the Darkling Wood.
Kiera B

I really enjoyed doing bookfest and reading all the bookfest books. It was fun going to Theatre Severn. What I got out of bookfest was getting to read a little bit more than I normally do.
Millie W

I enjoyed reading the bookfest books because they were books I have never read. When we went to the awards it was lots of fun because we got to see the authors, we got our planners signed by some of the authors, and they answered some of our questions. I am happy that I did bookfest.
