Last week we sent out information about the proposed federation with Sundorne Infants & Nursery School. Within the literature there is a Response Form for you to complete where you can have your say as to whether you support the proposed federation or not. We would kindly ask as many parents/carers as possible to complete the Response Form, to ensure we take as many of your views as possible (positive and negative) forward to the next stage of the federation.

You are welcome to attend either of the information meetings at Sundorne Infant & Nursery School on Wednesday 22 June or Harlescott Junior School on Monday 27 June; both start at 5pm.

Our transition day is on Monday 27 June and we will be sending out information about your child's new class next week. Year 6 children—please do not wear your hoodies on your transition day to your new Secondary school.

OPEN EVENING

Our whole school open evening is on Wednesday 13 July, 3.30–5.30pm

You will be able to look through your child's work from this year and discuss their report, and there will also be an opportunity to meet your child's new class teacher. No appointments necessary.

Dodgeball Competition

On Thursday Mrs Thain took eight Year 5 pupils to the Sports Village for a dodgeball competition. Our children were fantastic. They played fairly and with great skill. They thoroughly enjoyed their afternoon. They even won a small number of matches too. Well done!

Team: Kye B, Lucy S, Sam D, Oliver T, Liam F, Laura B, Megan I and Ben D

Prestfelde School Rounders Tournament

The Rounders team took part in a tournament held at Prestfelde School. There were 19 schools involved and the HJS team played very well. They were placed in a group with Radbrook, St Giles and Shrewsbury Cathedral they did well in the group beating Shrewsbury Cathedral 7-5, drawing with St Giles 5-5 and losing to a good Radbrook team 9-5. In the second round HJS fared even better playing Greenfields and winning $5\frac{1}{2}$ -4 $\frac{1}{2}$ and beating Oakmeadow 7-3 and a very tight loss to Pontesbury 5-4 $\frac{1}{2}$. The whole team had a fantastic day out and did themselves proud making it a top 10 finish for HJS. There were some great performances with excellent hitting and super catches.

With a special mention to Gary, who was a super Captain and managed to score a fair few rounders too.

Well done team!!

Team: Gary C, Laura B, Bethan H, Amber D, Melissa C, William R, Lacey S, Alex G, Tyler H, Jack P, Noah P and Josh M.
